

Can my student continue to receive LOSD instruction?

Understanding the educational options for your student may be confusing during this unprecedented time. All Oregon school districts are required to follow state laws and guidelines when enrolling and withdrawing students. This flowchart is intended to help parents understand when their student can continue to receive instruction from Lake Oswego School District (LOSD) when the student is removed from their scheduled classes. Instruction includes distance learning options.

